You acknowledge and agree that, to the extent permitted by the Special Notices, you shall solely use the third-party components referenced in this section 1.2.7 in conjunction with the Product as intended by us. To the extent that the Special Notices prohibit us from restricting your use of such third-party components to use only in conjunction with the Product, you further acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for any loss, costs, or damages directly or indirectly incurred due to your use of such third-party components in ways not intended or contemplated by us. We are not responsible for and expressly disclaim all warranties of any kind with respect to such use of such third-party components in ways not intended or contemplated by us.

1.2.8. Order of Precedence between EULA and Order. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions in the Order and the terms and conditions of this EULA, or if the Order changes any of the terms of this EULA, the terms and conditions of the Order will apply, except if the Order is between you and an Authorized Reseller, or the Order is issued/generated by you. In the case where the Order is between you and an Authorized Reseller, the terms of the Order will apply subject to the following: (a) any terms and conditions in the Order imposing obligations on the Authorized Reseller that are in addition to or different from the obligations we have to you pursuant to this EULA will be born solely by the Authorized Reseller and our obligations to you and limits on our liability will be governed solely by the terms and conditions of this EULA and (b) any terms and conditions that conflict with or would otherwise alter any of the following under this EULA will have no effect unless expressly agreed to in a written instrument executed by us: our ownership rights, yours and our confidentiality obligations, your export compliance obligations, limitations on your rights as a U.S. Government customer (if applicable), our audit rights, restrictions on your right to assign or governing law and jurisdiction. You agree to pay any sales, value-added or other similar taxes imposed by applicable law that we must pay on such fees, except those based on our income. Invoices may be issued by our Affiliate. If you and we agree that you will pay by credit card, you will provide us with valid and updated credit card information and you authorize us to store such information and bill such credit card for all fees applicable: (a) at the time that you order the Product and (b) at the time of any renewal or upgrade.

1.9.1. Authority. Each party represents and warrants that it has the legal power and authority to enter into this EULA.

1.9.2. Product Compliance with Documentation. We warrant to you that, for six (6) months from delivery (in the case of an On-Premise Product) or for the duration of the license (in the case of a Hosted Service), the Product will comply with the applicable Documentation in all material respects. Your exclusive remedy, and our sole liability, with respect to any breach of this warranty will be for us to use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly correct the non-compliance (provided that you notify us in writing within the warranty period and allow us a reasonable cure period). If we, at our discretion, reasonably determine that correction is not economically or technically feasible, we may terminate your license to the Product and provide you a full refund of the fees paid to us with respect to the Product (in the case of an On-Premise Product) or a refund of the prepaid fees for the unused portion of the license period (in the case of a Hosted Service). Delivery of additional copies of, or Updates to, the Product will not restart or otherwise affect the warranty period.

1.9.3. Warranty Exclusions. The warranty specified in section 1.9.2 (Product Compliance with Documentation) does not cover any Product provided on an unpaid evaluation or trial basis, or defects to the Product due to accident, abuse, service, alteration, modification or improper installation or configuration by you, your Affiliates, your or their personnel or any third party not engaged by us.

TO THE EXTENT THAT WE MAY NOT AS A MATTER OF APPLICABLE LAW DISCLAIM ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY, THE SCOPE AND DURATION OF SUCH WARRANTY WILL BE THE MINIMUM PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW.

1.10. Indemnification.

1.10.1. Our Indemnification Obligation.

1.10.1.1. Intellectual Property Infringement. We will defend you, and your officers, directors, employees, and agents from and against any and all third party claims, lawsuits, and proceedings alleging that your use of the Product, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this EULA, constitutes a direct infringement or misappropriation of such third party's patent, copyright or trade secret rights (the "IP Claim"), and we will indemnify you for damages finally awarded against you by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to the IP Claim.

1.10.1.2. Exceptions. We will not indemnify you to the extent that the alleged infringement or misappropriation results from (a) use of the Product in combination with any other software or item not supplied by us; (b) failure to promptly implement an Update provided by us pursuant to 1.10.1.3 (Our Options); (c) modification of the Product not made or provided by us; or (d) use of the Product in a manner not permitted by this EULA. We also will not indemnify you if we notify you of our decision to terminate this EULA, and the license to the Product granted hereunder, in accordance with section 1.10.1.3 (Our Options) and you have not ceased all use of the Product within thirty (30) days of such notification.

1.10.1.3. Our Options. If a final injunction is, or we reasonably believe that it could be, obtained against your use of the Product, or if in our opinion the Product is likely to become the subject of a successful claim of infringement, we may, at our option and expense, (a) replace or modify the Product so that it becomes non-infringing (provided that the functionality is substantially equivalent), (b) obtain for you a license to continue to use the Product, or (c) if neither (a) nor (b) are reasonably practicable, terminate this EULA on thirty (30) days' notice and, if the Product was licensed to you on a Perpetual License or Term License basis, refund to you the license fee paid to us for the Product less an amount for depreciation determined on a straight-line five year (or actual term if shorter) depreciation basis with a commencement date as of the date of delivery of the Product, or if the Product was licensed to you on a Subscription License basis, refund to you the unused portion of the fees paid in advance to us for the then-current subscription period for the Product. THE INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS SET OUT IN THIS SECTION 1.10.1 STATE OUR ENTIRE LIABILITY AND YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY WITH RESPECT TO ANY INFRINGEMENT OR ALLEGED INFRINGEMENT BY US OF ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OR PROPRIETARY RIGHTS IN RESPECT OF THE PRODUCT OR ITS USE.

1.10.2. Your Indemnification Obligation.

1.10.2.1. Indemnification for Third Party-Claims. To the extent permitted by applicable law, you will defend us and our Affiliates, and our and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents from and against any and all third party claims, lawsuits, and proceedings that arise or result from (a) your breach of this EULA, (b) your use, distribution and/or licensing of the Redistributables, if applicable, except to the extent it arises from an IP Claim covered under section 1.10.1 above, or (c) your failure or alleged failure to comply with Applicable Laws or any violation of a third party's rights in connection with your use of the Product (each a "Third-Party Claim" and collectively "Third-Party Claims") and you will indemnify for damages finally awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to any Third-Party Claim.

1.10.3. Control of the Defense or Settlement. For any indemnification obligation covered in section 1.10.1, "Indemnifying Party" means us, "Indemnified Party" means you, and "Claim" means an IP Claim. For any indemnification obligation covered in section 1.10.2, "Indemnifying Party" means you, "Indemnified Party" means us, and "Claim" means a Third-Party Claim. The Indemnified Party must provide the Indemnifying Party with prompt written notice of a Claim; however, the Indemnified Party's failure to provide or delay in providing such notice will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this section except to the extent the Indemnifying Party is prejudiced by the Indemnified Party's failure or delay. The Indemnified Party will give the Indemnifying Party full control of the defense and settlement of the Claim as long as such settlement does not include a financial obligation on or admission of liability by the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnified Party does not do so, then the Indemnified Party waives the Indemnifying Party's indemnification obligations under section 1.10.1 or 1.10.2, as applicable. The Indemnified Party will reasonably cooperate in the defense of the Claim and may appear, at its own expense, through counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnifying Party.

1.11. Confidentiality.

1.11.1. Confidentiality Obligations. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party agrees to retain in confidence all information and know-how transmitted or disclosed to the other that the disclosing party has identified as being proprietary and/or confidential or should reasonably be understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances surrounding its disclosure, and agrees to make no use of such information and know-how except under the terms of this EULA. However, neither party will have an obligation to maintain the confidentiality of information that (a) it received rightfully from a third party without an obligation to maintain such information in confidence; (b) was known to the receiving party prior to its disclosure by the disclosing party; (c) is or becomes a matter of public knowledge through no fault of the receiving party; or (d) is independently developed by the receiving party without use of the confidential information of the disclosing party. Further, either party may disclose confidential information of the other party as required by governmental or judicial order, provided such party gives the other party prompt written notice prior to such disclosure (unless such prior notice is not permitted by applicable law) and complies with any protective order (or equivalent) imposed on such disclosure. You will treat any source code for the Product as our confidential information and will not disclose, disseminate or distribute such materials to any third party without our prior written permission. Each party's obligations under this section 1.11 will apply during the term of this EULA and for five (5) years following termination of this EULA, provided, however, that (i) obligations with respect to source code will survive forever and (ii) trade secrets will be maintained as such until they fall into the public domain.

1.11.2. Product Benchmark Results. You acknowledge that any benchmark results pertaining to the Product are our confidential information and may not be disclosed or published without our prior written consent. This provision applies regardless of whether the benchmark tests are conducted by you or us.

Additionally, you may, at any time, elect to move the Software licensed under the Software Order to another environment, subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Software Order and the Software License Agreement, provided you give us at least thirty (30) days’ prior written notice (or such longer or shorter notice period specified in the Hosted Service Order) that you are cancelling the Hosted Service. If you opt to cancel the Hosted Service in accordance with this section 3.3.2 during an Initial Term or any Renewal Term of the Hosted Service Subscription, you will remain responsible for all fees owing under the Hosted Service Order for the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, in accordance with the payment terms set out in the Hosted Service Order, regardless of any early cancellation by you.

3.3.2. Software Bundled in the Hosted Service. If the Hosted Service Order indicates that the Software will be included as bundled component of the Hosted Service purchase (i.e., not a BYOL model), then your license to the Software will be governed by the terms and conditions of the relevant license agreement between you and us referenced in the Hosted Service Order as being applicable to the Software, or if no such license agreement is referenced in the Hosted Service Order, then our end-user license agreement accompanying the Software. For any Hosted Service Order where this section 3.3.2 is applicable, the definition of “Software License Agreement” in section 3.3.1 shall be deemed to be modified to mean the license agreement described in the preceding sentence.

3.3.4. Term. You must maintain an active Subscription to continue using the Hosted Service. The duration of the initial Subscription term (“Initial Term”) will be specified in the Hosted Service Order. Except as otherwise specified in the Hosted Service Order, the Subscription to the Hosted Service will automatically renew for successive periods equal in duration to the Initial Term (each a “Renewal Term”) unless you (or the Authorized Reseller if your purchased via an Authorized Reseller) notify us in writing or we notify you (and the Authorized Reseller if applicable) in writing at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, of the notifying party’s intention not to renew the Hosted Service.

3.3.5. Support. During the Initial Term and any Renewal Term of the Hosted Service, support and maintenance services will be governed by the support terms located at Progress Data Cloud Support Terms and incorporated herein by reference (“Hosted Service Support Terms”). If the Software Order references different support terms, then, for the duration of the Hosted Service, those other support terms will be deemed to be replaced and superseded by the Hosted Service Support Terms.

You may accept or decline any such trial in your sole discretion. Beta Services are for evaluation purposes only, and not for production use, are not considered part of the generally available Hosted Service, and may be subject to additional terms. If you elect to participate in the trial of the Beta Services, then you are expected to provide timely and constructive feedback during the trial period for the Beta Services. We will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to support you in your use of the Beta Services; however, we make no commitments regarding response times or the implementation or availability of updates, error corrections or work arounds associated with the Beta Services. In addition to and without limiting the scope of the terms of section 2.B.3 of this EULA, you grant to us and our Affiliates a worldwide, non-exclusive, limited term license to host, copy, transmit and display Your Data, and any Non-Supplier Applications and program code created by or for you using the Hosted Service, as necessary for us to provide the Hosted Service in accordance with this EULA. Subject to the limited license granted herein, we acquire no right, title or interest from you or your licensors under this EULA in or to Your Data or any Non-Supplier Application or program code supplied by you. You will determine Your Data to upload, input, transmit, create, store, generate, compile, derive or process with(in) the Hosted Service and the level of access to Your Data granted to us and/or our Affiliates. Your control over granting access to Your Data includes, without limitation, determining the extent to which you enable any capabilities that allow us and/or our Affiliates and the Hosted Service to read Digital Rights Management (DRM) protected documents in order to process them in the Hosted Service.

If we are required by a third-party licensor to remove Third-Party Content or receive information that Third-Party Content provided to you may violate applicable law or third-party rights, we may so notify you and in such event, you will promptly remove such Third-Party Content from your systems. If we receive information that a Non-Supplier Application hosted on the Hosted Service by you may violate applicable law or third-party rights, we may so notify you and in such event, you will promptly disable such Non-Supplier Application or modify the Non-Supplier Application to resolve the potential violation. If you do not take the required action in accordance with the above, we may disable the applicable Third-Party Content, Hosted Service and/or Non-Supplier Application until the potential violation is resolved.

3.6.4. Third-Party Content Ownership. Third-Party Content, for example in the form of semantic models such as taxonomies and ontologies, may be provided to you as detailed in the Order. Third-Party Content is provided on a licensed basis only and we (or our licensors) retain all ownership, rights and title in the Third-Party Content. We (or our licensors) may make changes or enrichments to the Third-Party Content either on our own initiative or by your request, and these changes will be owned exclusively by us (or our licensors). You agree that such changes and edits to the Third-Party Content shall not create any new intellectual property for you and you agree not to make any type of derivative work from the Third-Party Content and abide by the terms of this EULA and the Order.

3.7. Third-Party Products and Services.

3.7.1. Acquisition of Third-Party Products and Services. We or third parties may make available third-party products or services, including, for example, Non-Supplier Applications and implementation and other consulting services. Any acquisition by you of such third-party products or services, and any exchange of data between you and any third-party supplier, is solely between you and the applicable third-party supplier. 3.7.2. Non-Supplier Applications and Your Data. If you install or enable Non-Supplier Applications for use with the Hosted Service, you grant us permission to allow the provider of that Non-Supplier Application to access Your Data as required for the interoperation of that Non-Supplier Application with the Hosted Service. We are not responsible for any disclosure, modification or deletion of Your Data resulting from access by Non-Supplier Application or the provider of such Non-Supplier Application.

3.7.3. Integration with Non-Supplier Applications. The Hosted Service may contain features designed to interoperate with Non-Supplier Applications. To use such features, you may be required to obtain access to Non-Supplier Applications from their providers and may be required to grant us access to Your account(s) and data on the Non-Supplier Applications. If the provider of a Non-Supplier Application ceases to make the Non-Supplier Application available for interoperation with the corresponding Hosted Service features on reasonable terms (as determined in our sole discretion), we may cease providing those Hosted Service features without entitling you to any refund, credit, or other compensation. Additionally, we make no commitments regarding backwards or forwards compatibility between the Hosted Service and any Non-Supplier Application and we assume no liability for the loss of integration with, or loss of access to data stored in, a Non-Supplier Application.

3.8. Suspension of Hosted Service and Acceleration. If any amount owing by you to us or our Authorized Reseller under an Order, this EULA, or any other agreement for our services is thirty (30) or more days overdue, we may, without limiting our other rights and remedies, accelerate your unpaid fee obligations under such agreements so that all such obligations become immediately due and payable, and suspend our services to you, including, without limitation, the Hosted Services, until such amounts are paid in full. We will give you at least 10 days' prior written notice that your account is overdue before suspending any such services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this EULA, any notice provided by us pursuant to this section 3.8 may be provided by us by email to your business or invoicing contact specified in the Order.

3.9. Your Account Authentication. You acknowledge that the Hosted Services utilize OAuth 2 / OpenID Connect to delegate authentication to your identity provider (IDP) services, and we do not control such services. Where an IDP offers multi-factor authentication services or similar authentication methods to protect logins, you are strongly encouraged to enable such services or methods. Additionally, we reserve the right to update the Hosted Services from time to time to align with evolving security industry standards, including, without limitation, making your use of multi-factor authentication or other authentication method, a pre-requisite to gaining access to the Hosted Services.

3.10. Your Data Backup. We will follow our standard archival procedures for storage of that portion of Your Data that constitutes configuration data that is stored in the Hosted Services in accordance with section 2.B.5.1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this EULA (including section 2.B.5.1), you are solely responsible for implementing archival and backup procedures for all other portions of Your Data. Refer to the Documentation associated with the Hosted Services for details on available methods for completing such backups.

3.11. Your Data Portability. Upon termination of your subscription to the Hosted Service, we will retain Your Data for thirty (30) days immediately following the termination of the Hosted Service during which we will, upon receipt of your written request, provide you with the necessary access to allow you to export Your Data utilizing the then-available export and backup capabilities included in the Software and/or Hosted Service.. 4. PRODUCT SPECIFIC TERMS

4.1. Processing Capacity Advisory and Fair Use of APIs. The Hosted Service configuration and capacity limits will be specified in the Order Document and will be determined based on information that you provide regarding your information volume and other metrics for capacity planning and performance considerations of the Hosted Service. You acknowledge that You will need to monitor the traffic and processing performance of the Hosted Service environment, and that You may need to order additional capacity in the form of additional Software components and/or increased licensing quantities for additional processing capacity (e.g., CPU Core, GB RAM, TB Storage, Disk IOPS, TB traffic/month) if the environment reaches its configuration capacity limitations. We will not increase the size, and consequently the cost of your Hosted Service subscription without your prior written permission. We also expect fair use of the API calls, based on the size of your environment. If your use of our APIs is significantly above average for what we consider normal for the size of your subscribed Hosted Service environment we will write to you and you will have a choice of amending your use of the APIs and may choose to pay to use our professional services to provide advice, or you may increase the environment size, with a consequent increase in cost, such increase being notified to you and subject to your agreement.

If the Documentation for the Software operating in the Hosted Service specifies integration with some form of 3rd party generative artificial intelligence (“3rd Party Gen AI”), then the Software will include an application protocol interface (“API”) or other configuration option to connect to 3rd Party Gen AI. Such connection will be optional and solely at your discretion. You acknowledge that it is your sole responsibility to procure or obtain from the third-party provider the right to use the 3rd Party Gen AI and to comply with the terms and conditions of any agreement between you and such 3rd Party Gen AI provider governing such use by you. You acknowledge and accept that we are not a party to any such agreement between you and the 3rd Party Gen AI provider, that we have no control whatsoever over the 3rd Party Gen AI or its availability, and that we disclaim any and all liabilities for any output, errors, damages, losses, etc., or any other result of your use of the 3rd Party Gen AI integrated with the Software.
